

New Offer to Meet Demands. Five Copies Caucasian 3 Months For $1.00--12 Copies 3 Months $2.00

THE CAUCASIAN.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1896.

VOL. XIV.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Various Matters on Which the Popular Opinion is Express-ed—All Sections Interested.

LIVING ISSUES FORWARD.

More Endorsements of the Action of the Committee—Good Feeling Everywhere—People Are Coming to Us—Stay in the Middle of the Road" Is the Slogan.

Mutum In Parvo.

For The Caucasian.

OSKIMO, N. C., June 12, '96.—Pur-suant to request of many reformers in this immediate locality, I take this method of enunciating briefly the views of the people generally, regardless of past political proclivities, as to the action of the State Populist executive committee, and am proud to say said committee acted wisely; and for one of many thousands have to say our people are willing to co-operate with ANYBODY if it means a surrender of principle. If our Republican friends entertain the remotest idea that the Populist will support any man, or set of men, for office who is either a goldbug, straddlebug, or humbug and who is not in favor of repealing the present system of banking by the will be beautifully left.

I have seen and talked with quite a number of iron-jacketed, wood-dyed Democrats and quite a lot of Republi-cans and they are with the committee and Senator Butler. The people know full well if the past record of the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

It affords me exquisite pleasure to hear so many sensible and good men speak in praise of Butler, Skinner and Shuford. I am proud of them. May they live long and be happy.

M. G. GREGORY.

What They Are All Doing.

BONNE, N. C., June 12, '96.—The political pot is beginning to boil, or at least sizzle a little, in Watauga now.

The Democrats have called a coun-ty convention for the 20th of this month to appoint delegates to the State convention, &c. The Peoples Party will hold a convention at Boone, on Saturday the 27th of July, for the purpose of electing dele-gates to Congressional and State conventions and transact such other business as may be necessary. The Republicans are very enthusiastic for Pritchard or McKinley with silver as a side issue. The Democrats are strong for silver inside the Democratic party. A majority of the Peoplers Party are for the "middle of the road."

L. U. PERKINS.

Principles to the Front.

APPELWHITE, N. C., June 13, '96.—I would like to say that the actions of our State committees and of our representatives in Congress are in accord with the wishes of the people who want principles in front. The Peoplers Party is for Senator Butler will favor them this fall. I heard one say that he was a good Democrat and always had been. Our Representatives are giving the people of both old parties better satisfaction than their own are, and with good management from now on, this fact will tell its own story in November. Populists in this (Columbus) county love their principles and aim to stand by them; and fusion with any body only on principle will number them with the ten lost tribes of Israel.

ALVA BENSON.

Guthrie for Governor.

JACKSON, Northampton Co., N. C., June 8, '96.—I am satisfied that Maj. W. A. Guthrie is the proper man for Governor of several reasons. 1st, he is a statesman of the right and true type, 2d, sound and solid on the financial question, a true friend to silver. 3d, his Populist principles are above question. He left the old party like many of us who did, because principle had ceased to be a virtue in either of the two old parties. For the last two or three years he has given his strength and support to the cause of justice and reform, which demands equal protection to all.

I believe he can poll more votes in the coming election for Governor than any other man in the State. A large majority of both Populists and Republicans in this section are for the "Mag."

T. C. PARKER.

Peoples Party is Stronger.

For the Caucasian.

PENDLETON, N. C., June 9.—While this place has been a Democratic "stronghold," we feel that concessions are being made in favor of the Peoples Party. The Democrats are less disposed to criticize and abuse us. They are beginning to realize that we do not purpose to follow in the steps of either of the old parties. There is no doubt that the Peoples Party is much stronger in this community than it has been before.

We have some friends in the community irrespective of party, are for silver. Whether they will vote for silver or cover under party affiliation, will be seen in the coming election. We heartily endorse the action

JUS. READ THIS RECORD

Democrats Kill Eleven Silver Bills When They Could Have Passed Them.

THE FACTS AND FIGURES.

And Yet Some People Seem to Think This Goldbug Party Will Enact Reforms—Fools Will Be Fooled—But Populists Never:

M. T. PERRY,
Secretary.

Wants It Straight.

For The Caucasian.

GARYNSBURG, N. C., June 10, '96.—I and every Populist in this section are opposed to fusion with any party, especially the Democrats. Northampton Pops don't want any Demo-cratic fusion on any terms. We are Pops down here from the ground up. Give us a straight Populist "middle of the road." State ticked with Bill Guthrie at the head, and Northampton will give a thousand Populist majority. Every Pop and Republi-can that I have talked to say they are for Guthrie for Governor.

E. L. SUMMERELL.

Endorses Every Word.

For The Caucasian.

WELDON, N. C., June 11, '96.—I endorse every word of your article under the heading of "Some Fat Facts."

If the people could only see your paper, there would be thousands to join our party. They are coming to us in this country.

Very frequently I am importuned for issues of THE CAUCASIAN by people who declare that they are done with the Democratic party. It has been only fear of criticism that has kept them from joining us.

EDWARD T. CLARK.

SOME OF HIS SUSPICIONS.

A WATCHFUL POP SIGHTS A SCHEME AMONG THE DEMOCRATS FOR CONTROLING THE LEGISLATURE.

Watch Them With Something Stronger Than a Glass Eye—Guthrie for Governor—Some Plain Words to Mouthy Democrats.

For the Caucasian.

SUNSBURY, Gates Co., June 13.—There seems to be a great deal of Democratic mounthiness down here in Eastern North Carolina. Democrats say they will vote for Guthrie or any other good man the Popes will nominate for Governor. But when we reflect on the occurrences at the time Major Guthrie was down here making speeches in the interest of the Peoples Party, a Democrat could hardly be seen at any of his appointments. Now, I would like to know what has brought about this change. I think there is "something rotten in Denmark." I think their plan would be to let the Populists have all the State offices they want, if by so doing they (the Dem's) could get control of the legislature. A Democratic majority in the next legislature will restore their machine ring rule. It will do more than that; it will repeal our honest election law. It will do more yet; it will elect a Democrat to the U. S. Senate, and I believe it will do worse than that. I believe it will pass such legislation as will keep us in power just as long as they want to stay.

Now, as Populists, don't want any of these things I have made mention of, because we have labored under the gall and bitterness of these things. The Democratic party of North Carolina stands just where it stood in 1892, and these machine ringers will bear watching with something better than a glass eye.

We must beat the Democrats this year, and the way to do it, is for the people to hold township meetings, county meetings and district meetings and plan for the defeat of these ringers. For instance, the Populists and Republicans can co-operate and send a Republican from each district pledged to vote for no man for U. S. Senator but for a Populist.

1890 twenty-nine Democratic State conventions declared for free silver.

In 1892 these same Democrats elected Grover Cleveland and a Democratic House and gained control of the Senate, thus having absolute possession of the government.

In 1893 they voted silver down and stopped the coinage of silver entirely. Since then they have issued $262,000,000 of interest-bearing bonds in time of peace, and under such suspicious circumstances that the Senate has been compelled to investigate their actions.

For a number of years the Democrats have been going before the people in their campaign leading for a chance to undo the wicked legislation of the Republican party. Time and again, on the stump and in their State platforms they declared against national banks, the demonization of silver and the issue of bonds. They pledged the people their sacred honor that if once given the opportunity they would abolish national banks, enact a free coinage silver law, reduce taxation and increase the volume of the currency. The opportunity was given the party to redeem its pledges. The election of 1892 gave them full control of every branch of the government. Not a single one of the pledges made has been redeemed. Now in the light of these facts, does George Warner, or any other intelligent man suppose that the Populists would so far stultify themselves to quit their own party to join or co-operate with one whose forces are irreparably divided on every important issue, a party which has retreated from every position it ever took, a party which has cowardly surrendered every victory it has ever won, and which has basely betrayed every important trust reposed in it?

irreparably divided on every important issue, a party which has retreated from every position it ever took, a party which has cowardly surrendered every victory it has ever won, and which has basely betrayed every important trust reposed in it?

MEDICUS.

"On Principle, Or Not At All."

For The Caucasian.

PLYMOUTH, N. C., June 13, '96.—The Populists endorse the action of the executive committee on co-operation or fusion. We think it should be on principle or not at all.

Yours as ever,

J. M. BATEMAN

TO KILL
FREE SILVER.

New York Bankers Ready To Use $20,000,000—They Will

Rule or Ruin.

Desperate at the Rising Tide of Silver Sentiment—Threats Against the South—Money Interests of New York Say They Will Foreclose all Mortgages and Call in All Loans in the Silver States.

Julius Chambers, the New York Journal's most reliable and trustworthy correspondent, writing to that paper concerning the rapidly rising tide of the white metal sentiment, gives the following remarkable and infamous plan of the gold standard men, in their desperation to rule or ruin the country:

"The real political problem of the hour is the attitude the Democratic leaders of the four great States of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware are going to assume after the Chicago convention has declared for free silver.

"Senator Gorman, of Maryland, must also be added to the coterie that will include Patterson and Hill, Gray and Smith.

"A conversation with one of these men to-night elicited the important information that a gold standard Democratic ticket is not beyond the range of possibility.

"It may be decided on before the 7th of July that none of these leaders will enter the Chicago convention. They are disinclined to be known as bolters, but are irreversibly committed to the gold standard and feel the utmost disinclination to be bound by a free silver platform. They regard the rising tide of silver sentiment with quite as much consternation as do the McKinley Republicans.

"The 52nd Congress with a Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

BY collision and uniting of forces they have killed free silver ELEVEN TIMES, AND THAT IN NINE YEARS, and the man or men who are so foolish as to expect better times by either has my sympathy. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1 will never be given by either one of the old parties, for the reason that the Rothschilds, through their agents and henchmen in this country, have a mortgage on both.

"PUT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD."

23. The 52d Congress with a

Democratic majority of 148, but the two old PLUG parties is any criterion by which to judge, that their promises, whether in their platforms or on the headings, WILL BE FULFILLED BY A FAIR REBATE OF CON-DESPENSES FOR

THE CAUCASIAN

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

BY THE CAUCASIAN PUBLISHING CO.
MARIAN BUTLER, President
HAL AYER, Managing Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES,

ONE YEAR.....$1.00
SIX MONTHS.....$.60
THREE MONTHS.....$.35

Entered in the Post Office at Raleigh, N. C., as Second Class Matter.

"We regret that we cannot offer more reading matter through these columns. We regret that we cannot promptly publish all the communications sent us. Our apology for not doing so is 'hard times.' Thousands of letters come to us saying but for the 'hard times' they would subscribe for and support the paper. Well, our troubles are mutual. We are doing the best we can and we presume our friends are doing the same. 'Hard times' with them makes 'hard times' with this office, and surrounds it with depressing difficulties. We hope daily and weekly for better times among our friends.

PROFESSIONS AND ACTIONS.

"Silver men ought to unite. "We must get together." "We think alike and ought to vote alike." These are some expressions which fall upon the ear of the Populist who may find himself among Democrats these days. The utterances are pretty. They declare what ought to be, but the source from which they come makes them meaningless and of no value.

As uttered by Democrats they simply constitute a weak little whining for the Populists to vote the Democratic machine into office again, just because the machine is having its clingers to whoop for free silver. The machine is not honest and sincere, but it is no longer seeking to keep the "boys" from trying to make a great fuss and blow. It still hopes to fool the people.

We had a little talk with a Democrat last week who appears to have some confidence in the machine. He had read a comment in the News and Observer on a CAUCASIAN editorial which misled him, and he came down to TAKE US TO task for trying to split the silver forces.

"What in the thunder do you mean?" he asked. "Don't you know we ought to get together?" And here you are declaring you will not vote for the Democrats who are in favor of silver," &c., &c.

We quietly cited the previous promises and records of the Democratic party and then plainly told him there was no member of the Populist party who was so big a fool as to believe any more Democratic promises. The "chance" they had asked for had been given them by the people and nothing had come of it. It was our opinion that nothing would come of another chance.

"Well, then," he said, "let the people get together in a non-partisan, representative mass meeting and name men for offices who will not be objectionable to the silver men of any party, and let the united strength of the silver forces be cast for them."

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE HYPOCRITES.

Very good, we said. That would be a solution of the "getting together" problem; but who can or will inaugurate the movement for such a meeting? If the Populists should call such a meeting, would the Democrats attend it and enter into the movement in good faith and do what they could do make the "getting together" plan a success?

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Senator Butler, in his argument in support of his bill, produced a secret circular which is being sent out from New York to all the banks containing instructions to secure the election of a goldbug for Senator Butler and others who supported his very important bill.

"No," he said, "I think not. The Democrats would probably think it a trap laid by the Populists and might not enter into the plan. It would be a surrendering of their autonomy and that, they would not be willing to do.

We then told him we knew that, The Democrats (the machine element) think more of their party than any principle. In fact principle has no part in the inspiration of their tactics. Their inspiration is office and spoils, and the organization is a close corporation of such character as would sell out every national principle for the sake of controlling and holding the spoils and offices that are involved in the State government.

We then referred him to the fact that in last September nearly a thousand Democrats in the State signed a call for a non-partisan State silver convention. Populists did not say this is a Democratic scheme to trap us. They said it is a silver convention. We are for silver and we will attend it and try to unite the silver forces. We don't care what becomes of party if we can secure the operation of our principles, and we will go there and throw our force and strength with silver Democrats for that purpose.

But Great Scott! When the Populists came for the purpose of effecting this union, they found that the Democrats had fed and abandoned the convention which they had themselves called, and but for the bill was introduced and passed No, not one! Have they commented on the convention it would have been a total failure.

We told our Democratic friend that we thought his statement that Democrats would not attend a convention called by Populists, and the fact that Populists did attend a convention called by Democrats when Democrats themselves bolted it, were good and sufficient reasons for us to doubt the present Democratic professions, and for us to determine that we could not co-operate with them as a party. And then our Democratic friend used these very words, "Well, I give it up."

DO NOT BE AFFECTED BY WILD RUMORS.

THE CAUCASIAN stated last week that it believed that the Democratic party, as an organic force, was a party with which the Populists would never co-operate on any terms, and that before they would consent to such a course, they would go into the Republican party. We have received letters of approval and commendation for this utterance from all sections of the State, and we can now say that we know such co-operation is an impossibility.

The statement seemed to disgruntle and disturb some Democrats who, for some utterly inexplicable reason to us, appeared to have concluded that they had corralled the People's Party, and that the only thing left for them to do was to brand it. Unless they had grown to believe the false reports of their own papers we cannot understand how any such idea could have been impressed upon them unless they allowed Democrats to impress them. These letters also stated that had such an arrangement been attempted by any leaders, it would not have been supported.

A most astonishing incident in connection with this matter is the fact that we have received a few letters from some good Populists in which they confess that they were beginning to believe that some efforts were being made to effect cooperation between Populists and Democrats, and that some prominent Populists were parties to this effort. It is totally beyond our power to understand how any such idea could have been impressed upon them unless they allowed Democrats to impress them. These letters also stated that had such an arrangement been attempted by any leaders, it would not have been supported.

It may be that the people will again send to Washington a Democratic or Republican Congress. How they can do so, with the records before them (if they know those records) passes our comprehension. Both have been tried fairly. Both have proven to be incompetent and contemptible. They are a bird of a feather. If the people shall fail to rebuke them in positive terms, there are thousands of good men who will seriously begin to wonder if the people are capable of self-government.

RULE OR RUIN.

Elsewhere we publish an article under the head "To Kill Free Silver." It is quite possible that the article may be somewhat sensational as to the intent described therein, but it does not overstate the power that could be exercised if the gold ring and money speculators should decide to use it. For this reason the article is worthy of consideration.

"RULE OR RUIN."

Now, the question arises, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken away by ballot? It is quite possible that if that power shall be undisturbed for another four years, it could not be removed except by bullet, and possibly not by that method. As to this question the great people only

have the question arise, is not this power dangerous? Is it not a menace to the people and to the country? The people have unwittingly voted this power into the hands of a few men because they listened to demagogues and scoundrels and "voted for party." Should not the people make one grand effort to take the power away from these people while it can be taken

COURT

THE CAUCASIAN.

Raleigh, N. C., June 18, 1896.

A NEW PRINCIPAL

For the North Carolina Institution For The Blind.

The Board of Trustees of the above named institution met on Monday of last week, and their chief work was the election of a new Principal to take the place of Mr. W. J. Young, who has held the position since 1885. Mr. Frederick R. Place, of Jackson, Illinois, is the newly elected officer. He was highly recommended to the Board. Mr. Young was elected as State Prisoner for four years with a salary of $1,000. The action of the Board has caused some criticism among the friends of Mr. Young. This is natural, but it may be said without prejudice that the Board of Trustees is interested with the welfare of the Institution, and is composed of good men who may be credited with pursuing the course which seems best to them.

DOCTOR HARTMAN.

Others Relief to Sick Women for the Asking.

It is at this time of the year when the weak, nervous woman is prostrated and least able to perform the daily routine of duties which fall to her share. She has no ambition and her work drags upon her at every step. It seems never to be completed and she seems to have no desire to do it. As a rule, she keeps bravely at it, often uncomplaining and patient until she breaks completely down and can go no further. It is to this time that Dr. Hartman offers advice and encouragement free. If all such women will write to Dr. Hartman, giving a full account of their troubles, he will answer promptly by mail and will do his best to take all steps which will make to take care of themselves. His advice costs nothing and the medicines are not expensive. Every woman who follows his advice is greatly benefited and the great majority are completely restored to their former strength.

Every woman may have a copy of Dr. Hartman's book on female diseases. It is an invaluable book for the class of women to whom it is written. This book will be sent to any woman by The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Alumni Association.

At the business meeting of the Alumni Association of the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts held at Durham, June 9, '96, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Chas. Pearson, '94; Vice-President, David Clark, '95; Secretary-Treasurer, W. H. Harris, '95. The alumni orators for the next commencement are Messrs. E. S. Darden, '95; and C. W. Gold, '95.

Fourth District Democrats

The Democratic Convention of the Fourth Congressional District of North Carolina will be held in Metropolitan Hall, Raleigh, on June the 24th, at 12 o'clock a.m.

County Democratic Convention.

The Democratic convention of Wake County met last Saturday in Metropolitan Hall. It followed the Populist platform as to silver and the national banking system. It was all one way—for silver. M. T. Leach was chairman. It endorsed Judge Walter Clark for Vice-President. A motion to endorse Captain S. A. Ashe as State Treasurer was offered at the last moment but the convention adjourned without acting on it. The "silver plank" was a strong one. It calls for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, without waiting for the action of any other government. Delegates to the State and district conventions were directed to vote for no man or delegate to the national convention or for any officer who is not unequivocally and sincerely in favor of this financial policy and express themselves himself.

Damaging Hall Storms.

Reports are received of very damaging hall storms in different parts of Wake county on last Saturday night. In the vicinity of Wake Forest there were drifts eleven inches deep. The storm fell with great force and literally ruined the growing crops. Cotton stalks were denuded of leaves and corn was split all to pieces. These crops were ruined over a large area. Some damage from hail was also reported from Apex and Holly Springs. It is estimated that the total loss in the storm's track is $20,000.

The Summer School for Teachers.

The University Summer School for teachers will begin June 23rd and last one month in University buildings. Chapel Hill is a quiet summer resort and many teachers are already there enjoying the campus and the library, and resting in the shade of the majestic oaks.

Tickets, on the certificate plan with a special discount, may be bought by the teachers going, and on return the agent in Chapel Hill will sell tickets at one-third the regular fare.

It is expected that 300 teachers will attend the Summer School this session.

One Honest Man.

DEAR EDITOR: Please inform your readers that if written to confidentially, I will mail in a sealed letter the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly vigor, after years of suffering from Nervous Weakness, Loss of Manhood, Lack of Confidence, etc.

I have no scheme to extort money from any one whatsoever. I was robbed and swindled by quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and anxious to make this certain means of cure known to all. Having nothing to sell or send C. O. D., I want no money. Address Jas. A. HARRIS, Box 805, Delray, Mich. [ap961]

Personal.

FREE—64 page medical reference book for any person afflicted with specific chronic and destractive diseases peculiar to their sex. Address the leading physicians and surgeons of the United States. Dr. Hathaway & Co., 225 So. Broad St. Atlanta, Ga.

Ice Cream Made by a New Process.

I have an ice cream freezer that will freeze cream instantly. The cream is put into the freezer and comes out instantly, smooth and perfectly frozen. This astonishes people and crowd will gather around to see the operation and they will all want to try the cream. You can sell cream as fast as it can be made, and sell freezers to many of them who would not buy an old style freezer. It is really a curiosity and you can sell for $100 worth of cream and six to twelve freezers every day. This makes a good profit these hard times and is a pleasant employment. W. H. Blair & Co., 140 S. Highland Ave., Station A, Pittsburgh, Pa., will sell you freezers and information in regard to this new invention on application and will employ good salesmen on salary.

A DO-NOTHING RECORD

And Under Present Conditions a "Do-Nothing" Record the Worst Record Possible.

THE HOUSE VS. BOND BILL.

Why It Failed to Vote On That Measure—Populists Make a Fine Record and Show Up the Furdy and Treacherous of the Old Parties—Trial by Jury Preserved in Spike of Hill and the Gold Men—Silver Republicans—With Reference to See and Class Matt Matter.

Special to The Caucasian.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The closed session of the 55th Congress closed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The record of this Republican Congress, like its Republican predecessors, as well as like the last Democratic Congress, has again illustrated the difference between party promises and party performances. Each time the Republican party comes into power it does so by denouncing the sins of omission and commission of the Democratic party, promising to remedy the evils of which the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention. Quite a number of Republicans from the West informed Mr. Dingell that they dare not vote upon the bill, which passed the Senate last week, prohibiting the further issue of bonds. They have been entirely from one point of view, and that is the effect a division of the Republicans on this issue might have upon the St. Louis convention.

